APPENDIX.

Rules for the guidance of the Provincial Harijan Welfare Committee, constituted under G.O. Ms. No. 2628 dated 16.6.1947.

I. General.

1. The term of office of this Committee shall be three years.
2. The functions of this Committee shall be to advise the Government on all matters regarding Harijan Welfare, to guide the work that is being carried on by them for the Welfare of the Harijan community. For this purpose the Committee can call for any information that may be required and give suggestions regarding improvements to the Harijan Welfare work undertaken by the Harijan Welfare Department.
3. It shall meet once in 3 months; special meetings may be held earlier whenever there is need for them. The Secretary shall call for the meetings in consultation with the Chairman.
4. The members of the Provincial Harijan Welfare Committee shall be ex-officio members of their respective District Committees.

II. Budgets.

New Schemes of expenditure (Part II proposals) should be placed by the Director of Harijan Welfare before the Committee for its consideration before submission to Government. The Collectors of the Districts should place their District Budgets before their Committees before sending them to the Director of Harijan Welfare.

2. The Director of Harijan Welfare will also place before the Committee annual reports of the work done in the Province.

RULES FOR THE DISTRICT COMMITTEES.

The District Committees shall have the same powers as the Provincial Committee in their own area.

2. The meetings shall be held as often as necessary, even once in a month, if there is need for them.

3. The District Harijan Welfare Officer shall place before the District Committee quarterly reports of the work done in his area, as also the work to be done, and the grievances and disabilities the community is suffering from.

4. As soon as the respective District allotments are known, the District Harijan Welfare Officer shall prepare a scheme of the work to be done in his district under the different heads, in the order of their priority and their estimated cost. The same shall be placed before the Committee and circulated to members sufficiently in advance who shall scrutinise the same and offer their suggestions at the next meeting.

5. Side by side with the work that is being done, an estimate for the work to be done in the coming year should also be prepared and placed before the Committee and then only sent for inclusion in the Provincial Budget proposals.

PROPOSALS FOR DISCUSSION AT MEETINGS.

One week's clear notice shall be given for the meetings and as far as possible the date of the subsequent meeting shall be fixed at the previous meeting itself. Proposals by members shall be sent so as to reach the Secretary or Collector, at least three clear days before the date of the meeting, on receipt of which they shall be included in the agenda.
